

Jouons Soccer League FAQs

1. Is there a weather policy?

In the case of consistent inclement weather, we will make our best efforts to post an update here on the site by 7:00pm the night before game day. If an event is canceled due to inclement weather, we will explore rescheduling options and notify all registered participants.

2. What is the refund policy?

If a team/player withdraws from the league less than 30 days before the start date, they will be refunded half of the paid amount. There will be no withdrawal refund after the season has started.

3. Can I pay the same day of the event?

Yes, via registration by check.

4. Can I play on two different teams?

Yes, as long as you register for both, or get express consent from league directors.

5. What's the waiver? Where can I get one?

If you register your player, the waiver is included.

6. What if I want to work at the event?

If you are interested in volunteering or working as a referee, please email us (info@jouonsfc.com) or register online.

7. Do we have to have a coach?

No, coaches will be provided by Jouons, but you may bring your own; just let us know ahead of time.

8. Will there be water provided?

We encourage teams to bring their own drinking water.

9. What equipment (clothing) does the team need?

League jerseys will be provided. Each player MUST wear shin guards.

10. Are teams allowed to be coed?

Yes, the league is open to all participants.

11. How many players can I have on the roster?

Minimum: 5
